D. J. McGann, agent of the Louisville and Nashville railroad at Midway, committed suicide by shooting. He was a brother of First Baseman McGann of the Milwaukee American Association baseball team.

After deciding to endorse a candidate for United States Senator, the Indiana Democratic State convention nominated John W. Kern on the third ballot. Mr. Taggart, who withdrew on the third ballot, says he is pleased with the result.

It is said that a very large proportion of the young chickens hatched out this spring are roosters. When the news of Democratic victories begin to come in this fall there will be occupation for all of them.—Winchester Democrat.

Deputy Marshal William Mays, charged with murder, was acquitted in the United States District Court at Richmond, because no one was present in court to prosecute him. Mays killed a moonshiner by the name of Beard a year ago, while attempting to arrest him.

Maysville, Ky., April 20.—Jesse Blythe, of Rightsville, O., was found alongside the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad tracks below this city today mangled almost beyond recognition, an arm and leg off and a large hole in his head. He went to sleep on the track. His injuries are fatal.

Ruth Bryan Leavitt will be married at Fairview, Neb., on Tuesday next to Reginald Owen, of the British Royal engineers. It is said Mrs. Leavitt met her fiancé in Colorado late last summer. He is 26 years old. She has two children, who are the pride of their grandfather, Hon. W. J. Bryan.

Charles A. White, a Democratic member of the Lower House of the Illinois Legislature, in a sworn statement said he had been bribed to vote for William Lorimer for United States Senator during the recent deadlock of that Legislature. He said he was paid $1,000 and a divvy of $900 "jack pot." All the persons named in the White statement deny the story in toto.

Members of the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States held a meeting in the court at the Capitol in Washington and paid tribute to the memory of the late Justice Brewer. The Justices of the court were present.

It is stated in Washington that there is positive assurance Mr. Bryan will not be a candidate for Senator from Nebraska, and the reason given is that he is pledged to stay out of local Nebraskan contests between Democrats.

Whitesburg, Ky., April 29.—Grant Cloninger, a Baptist minister of the upper Cumberland River section, has become almost suddenly insane and will be committed to the Eastern Kentucky Insane Asylum as soon as arrangements can be made.

Walton, Ky., April 28.—The Rev. James W. Rogers, Grand Chaplain of the Kentucky Masonic Grand Lodge, died suddenly at his home here this morning while seated in a chair. He had been ill for some time with grip. Heart failure was the immediate cause of death.

He was fifty-six years of age and a native of Napoleon, Gallatin county. He was never married.

Whitesburg, Ky., April 28.—The jury in the W. R. Holcomb murder case, after deliberating since yesterday afternoon, returned a verdict this morning giving him eight years in the penitentiary.

Holcomb killed Isaac Huff, a merchant, at Poor Fork, in Harlan county, July 12, 1905, and the case was transferred here on change of venue.

Kentucky was employed in the case.

Sharpsburg, Ky., April 28.—News has been received here that James Maze, son of J. W. Maze, a prominent farmer of this county, was sandbagged yesterday in Cincinnati. He was on his way to visit friends at Middletown, Ohio.

He had $105 in his pocket at the time his money was all gone. The police of Cincinnati are working on the case, but as yet nothing has been heard of the robbers.

Lexington, Ky., April 30.—To stop the vandalism of curious hunters a gigantic stone image of Henry Clay, which for half a century has topped a shaft 100 feet high in the Lexington cemetery, was lowered today and buried near the mausoleum containing the bodies of the statesman and his wife.

The statue was broken by lightning seven years ago and since then almost every visitor who has climbed to the shaft has taken away a bit of the figure as a souvenir. A new statue is being sculptured at the cemetery and it is expected that it will be ready for unveiling on July 1.

Paris, Ky., April 29.—Petitions were presented to the City Council from a large number of citizens complaining of the laxity shown by the Government census enumerators. The Council empowered the Mayor to appoint reliable citizens to make a house-to-house canvass of the city and report all omissions made by the enumerators. It has been a source of general complaint that the census work here has been very indifferently done.

They are drilling for gas at Carlisle and are preparing to go at it in the vicinity of Mayville. It is a well demonstrated fact that we have plenty of gas underlying this section and it should be utilized. With natural gas this city would make rapid growth and could inaugurate manufacturing industries at present impracticable on account of the high cost of fuel.

Fifty acres of land was the consideration received by Ernest Hibbee, aged twenty-five, a farmer of Wood county, in return for marrying Mrs. Nancy Jane Pierce, sixty-five, a widow. At the same time the marriage license was secured by Hibbee to marry Mrs. Pierce, he recorded a deed from her for the land, which provided that it was deeded him as a consideration of his marriage to her, but she retains a life interest in the property. The couple went to an attorney and had the document drawn up in legal form before they proceeded to the clerk's office to secure a marriage license.

New York, April 30.—The first general impression of a very rich and very sincere Christian young man of the total misery and horror of the underworld's most sordid institution—white slavery—will result in the expenditure of a fortune to wipe out traffic not only in America, but in the wide world.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., the head of the special grand jury which conducted the white slave investigation here, is so appalled and horror-stricken at the revelations here and international ramifications of the system that he is determined to wipe it out. He said today he would spend any amount of money to do this, and he is backed in his determination by his father, John D. Sr., the world's richest man.

Winchester, Ky., April 29.—Tomorrow is the last day for taking the census in this city, and unless the time is extended thousands of the people will be left out. The directors of the Commercial Club took twelve books at random today and found more than 1,000 names omitted.

On many streets no enumerator had appeared. Some of the agents have done their work well and others very badly. The same state of affairs prevails in the county, and in some precincts little or nothing has been done. Appeals to the supervisor have been in vain, and the Commercial Club took both Senators, the member in Congress from this district and the head of the Census Bureau to secure more time and better enumerators.

Frankfort, Ky., April 29.—The Court of Appeals today affirmed the case of the Foster-Milburn Company against Col. Jack P. Chinn, from Mercer, the judgment below being for $2,000 damages for publishing Col. Chinn's picture in connection with a patent medicine advertisement. This is the second time the case has been to the Court of Appeals.

The firm which manufactures a certain brand of kidney pills, published a flattering testimonial to the efficacy of the medicine, purporting to have been made by Col. Chinn. Col. Chinn then brought suit for damages at Harrodsburg, claiming that he had never given such a testimonial, alleging further that he not only had never heard of the medicine, but had never had occasion during his strenuous life to resort to any specific for kidney trouble, with which he had never been affected.

Bluefield, W. Va., April 30.—As a result of an attempted criminal attack upon Mrs. Kemp Charlton, a highly respected woman at Harrodsburg, W. Va., by Luther Hale, a colored youth 21 years old, last night, mob is being organized and it is the general belief that the negro will be lynched before daybreak Sunday. Hale has been doing general chore work for the Charlton family.

Last night he entered the bedroom of Mrs. Charlton, and grabbing her by the throat attempted a criminal assault by throwing her on the bed. She broke away, however, screaming at the top of her voice and making a frantic race for help. Her cries attracted the attention of neighbors and a band of pursuers at once started on the trail of the negro, who, after a chase of three

The lynching sentiment is strong and a posse heavily armed is preparing to move upon the County Jail. The authorities have been advised as to the formation of the lynching party and the jail is now surrounded by a strongly armed guard.

Washington, April 30.—Twice since the Republican revolt against Speaker Cannon has been making progress Representative John W. Langley of Kentucky has voted with the insurgents. The first time in opposition to making provision for a regular last Wednesday. This fight ended in the overthrow of Cannon on March 19, but Langley was regular throughout the remainder of this engagement.

Yesterday he voted against the House organization for the Madison amendment to the railroad bill, which provided for a physical valuation of railroads. This was carried against the regulars, and is considered a victory for the public. Langley's two withdrawals from the regular camp have been the subject of comment, but the reason for his occasional insurgency is only that the Tenth-district Republicans are really hostile to Cannon.

Representatives Bennett and Edwards, the other two Kentucky Republicans, are severely regular because their districts are unanimously for the House organization. But Langley has on several occasions found that his district is just the distance from the brink to the bottom of being howling insurgent territory.

As a result of sleeping with his mouth open George Davenport, living near Orangeburg, a Mason county, was bitten on the tongue Saturday night at a local hotel by an insect, which caused the tongue to swell so that he was unable to talk or swallow.

Judge W. Con Bell, of Harrodsburg, was instantly killed and Mrs. Bell and sixteen others were injured in a trolley wreck near Seattle, Wash., last night. Mrs. Bell's skull is crushed and she is not expected to live.

She gave him a ten-dollar bill, and told him to get one five in change—one dollar in small pieces. The merchant gave the boy a five-dollar bill, four ones, a half and two quarters. On the way home the boy lost a quarter. It cost 25 cents to get the $10 bill changed. A checking account would have saved this trouble and loss. Ask us about the advantages of a checking account.
